Kate Campbell Stevenson

Producer/Singer/Actor/Women's Activist

1972 Ionia Graduate Returning to Give Back

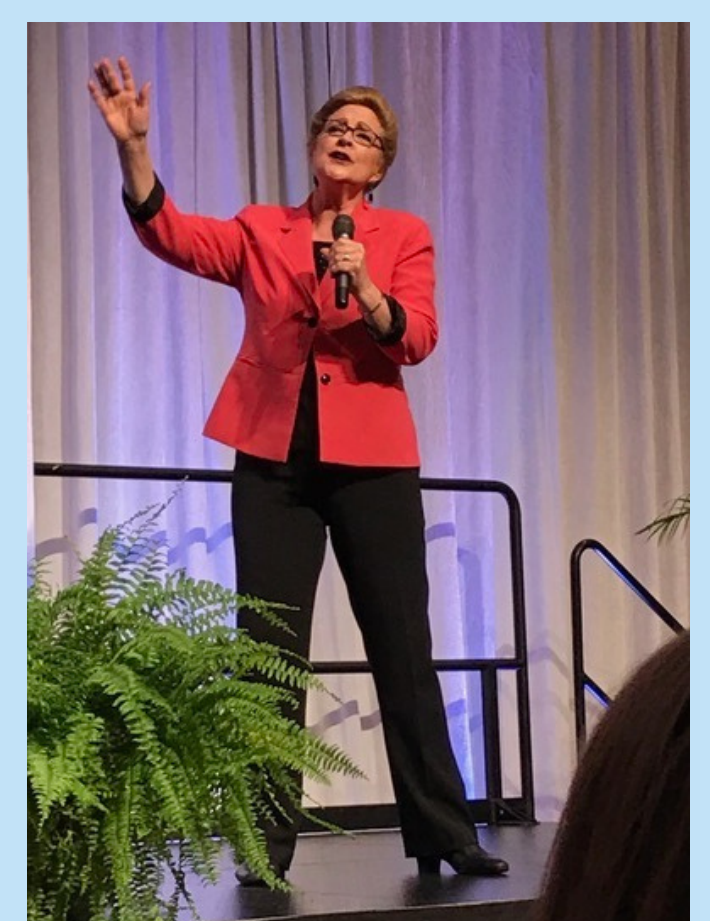

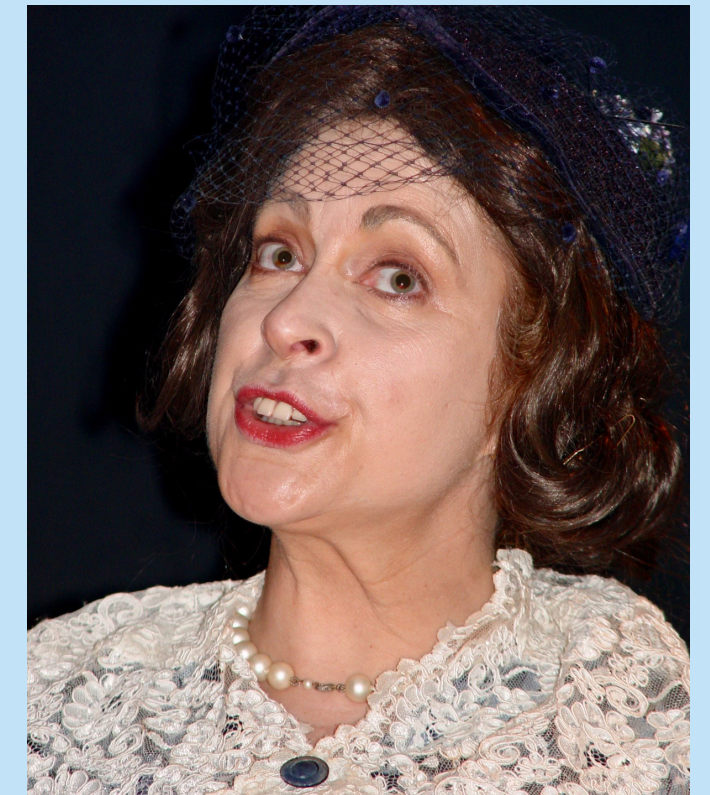

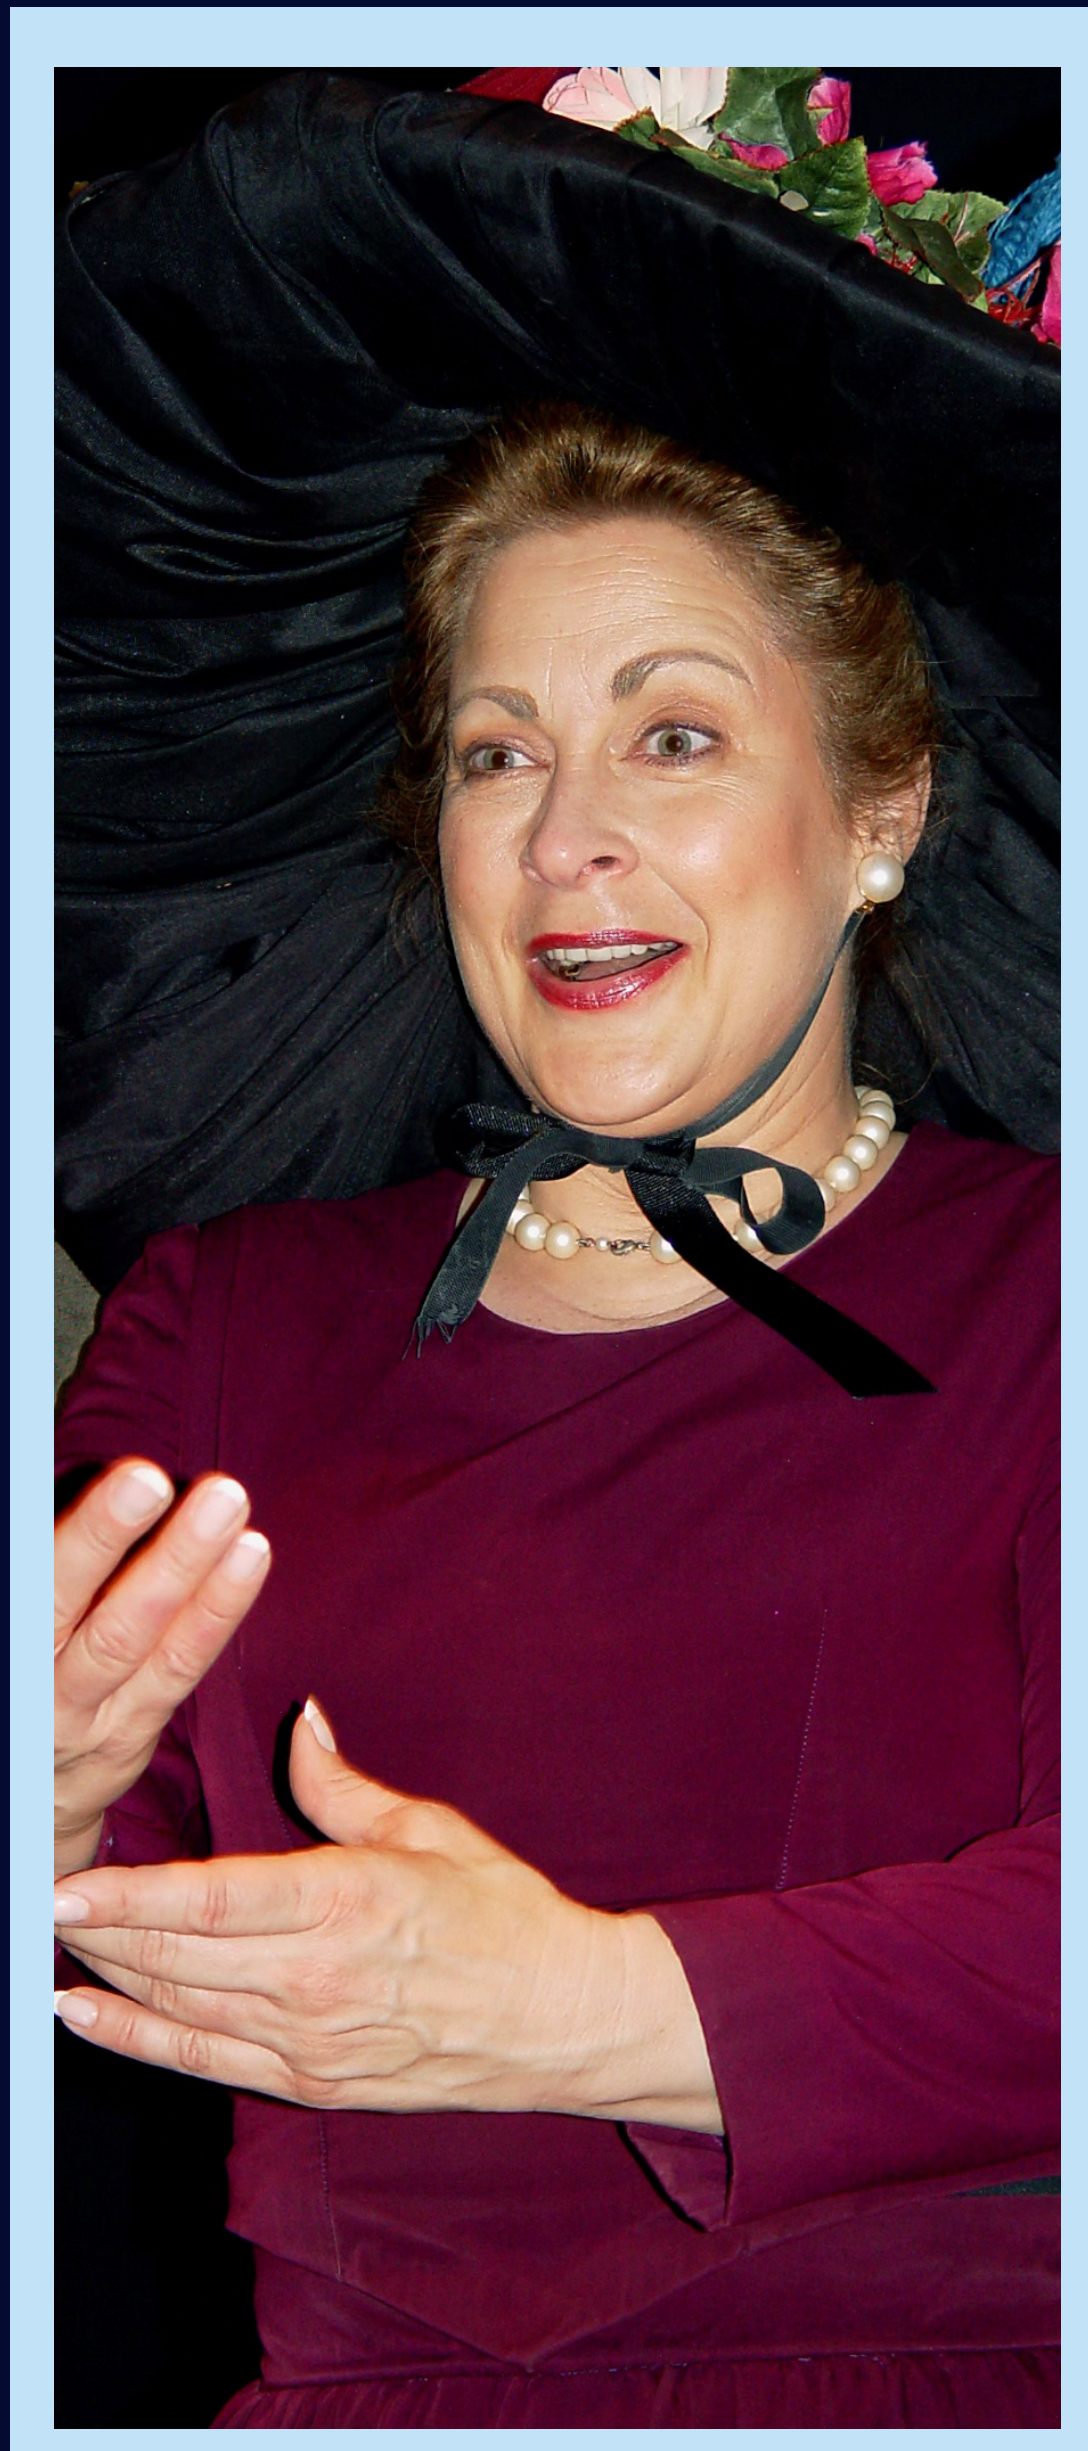

For the second time in her career Kate is returning to Ionia to support a cause she strongly believes in, as did her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Richard Campbell.

In 1993, Kate and her family performed a special Campbell Homecoming Concert at the Ionia Theatre to raise money for the hospital.

On Saturday, May 11, 2024 she will return to sing and perform as Eleanor Roosevelt at the Future ICL, part of her Women: Back to the Future series, to raise awareness and funds for the Ionia Community Library Foundation (ICLF). Kate has heartfelt memories growing up in Ionia and many revolve around the library. She realizes, "Our Ionia Community needs an up-to-date library with plenty of meeting spaces to nurture current and future generations providing an exciting safe place to expand their minds." This is nothing new to Kate, Dr. Campbell was on the Library Board for over 35 years and was one of the people spearheading the refurbishment of the Hall-Fowler home in the late 1950's and early 1960's.

About Kate

Kate Campbell Stevenson has starred in over 30 Broadway musicals in regional theaters throughout the U.S. Some of her favorites include My Fair Lady, Camelot, Showboat, I Do! I Do! and The Sound of Music. She is a devoted catalyst for women's issues, families and communities. In 1995 she combined these passions to create a series of one-woman shows Women: Back to the Future, Amending America and Forging Frontiers. Today her motivational programs are featured nationally in schools, conferences, non-profits, government programs, and military events. Each performance brings to life powerful women's stories through song, monologue and clever costume changes to inspire audiences of all ages for a new generation of leaders. Campbell Stevenson was recognized in "2012, 2015, and 2020 as one of "Maryland Top 100 Women" by The Daily Record for her "significant professional accomplishments, outstanding community leadership and inspirational mentoring.
